

Please support the ALA Carte Channels. I do.
I recently had Showtime free for 6 weeks. I did not see a single show that I would pay for. Yet, there are other, less advertised, channels I would gladly support. And my husband would love Wings and History Channels. Our tastes run counter to general packages. So why can't we dictate what we want? Please!